ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the complaint and the pretrial services report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 33 year old male citizen of the United Mexican States who has no legal status in the United States. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement has issued a detainer against him.
2. Defendant is accused of transporting and harboring aliens in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii) and (iii). Defendant is facing a potential penalty of up to ten years in prison.
3. Defendant has no known criminal history in the United States. Information presented in the criminal complaint and at hearing indicate that he played a significant role in the smuggling scheme. He called a relative of two smuggled illegal immigrants whom he was aware were being held in a house in Corpus Christi, Texas and demanded payment of additional money for their release. He threatened to kill one of the immigrants if the payment was not made.
4. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
